CASE NO. 2003-00266

MOTION OF KENTUCKY UTILITIES COMPANY AND
LOUISVILLE GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY TO MODIFY PROCEDURAL SCHEDULE

Kentucky Utilities Company and Louisville Gas and Electric Company (collectively, the “Companies”) hereby move the Public Service Commission (“Commission”) to modify the procedural schedule in this case by extending the time the Companies have to file their supplemental rebuttal testimony from January 7, 2005, to January 10, 2005, by the close of business that day, provided that such an extension will not require changing the dates currently scheduled for the upcoming hearing in this case, February 8-9, 2005. In support of this Motion, the Companies state as follows:

By Order dated November 12, 2004, the Commission required the Midwest Independent Transmission System Operator (“MISO”) to file its supplemental rebuttal testimony no later than November 19, 2004. Subsequently, by Order dated December 2, 2004, the Commission revised the procedural schedule in this case to require MISO to respond to data requests concerning its supplemental rebuttal testimony no later than December 20, 2004, which date the Commission later revised to December 21, 2004, by Order dated December 23, 2004. The remainder of the procedural schedule set out in the Commission’s Order dated December 2, 2004, which remains intact, requires the Companies to file their supplemental rebuttal testimony no later than January 7, 2005.

The Companies request an Order modifying the current procedural schedule only insofar as it requires the Companies to file their supplemental rebuttal testimony no later than January 7, 2005, but only if such a modification will not require modifying the dates currently set for the hearing in this matter, February 8-9, 2005. On that condition, the Companies request an extension of the date on which they must submit their supplemental rebuttal testimony from January 7, 2005, to January 10, 2005. The Companies request this extension because of the delay involved in receiving certain workpaper-related information the Companies requested concerning MISO's cost-benefit analysis, which workpapers the Companies anticipated receiving with MISO's filing of supplemental rebuttal testimony on November 19, 2004. Instead, the Companies began receiving MISO's workpapers on December 7, 2004, and received additional deliveries through the holiday period, with the final delivery received today. Because this information is important to the Companies' ability to produce the most informative and useful supplemental rebuttal testimony possible, the Companies request an Order allowing them one additional business day to analyze the information MISO has yet to produce and incorporate that information into their testimony.

WHEREFORE, the Companies move the Commission to enter an order modifying the current procedural schedule in this case to allow the Companies to file their supplemental rebuttal testimony no later than the close of business on January 10, 2005, but only if such an extension will not require changing the dates currently set for the upcoming hearing in this case, February 8-9, 2005.

Dated: January 3, 2005

Respectfully submitted,
